PREAMBLE

All parents and carers whose children are enrolled at the School are automatically members of the Parents & Friends' Association.

Parents & Friends' Associations are an integral part of Catholic schools and provide a formal structure and support network for parents to participate in the activities and decision making processes at the School and to work for the benefit of the School and their children.

- The Association represents the interests of the whole parent body
- It helps parents engage with the School and the education of their children
- It works to support the School

This means that parents are partners with the teachers and the principal in the education of their children and consequently parents share the responsibility of educating their children with the teaching staff.

Parents and Friends' Associations are not for profit organisations. No member of the Association will receive a financial advantage from the Association. All monies that the Association raises are to be directed towards the objectives of the School community.

6. ROLES OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

6.1 President

Role

The President is the leader but not the “boss”. The key task of the President is to ensure that the needs and wishes of the parent body are given a voice and that good relationships are established with the principal and teachers. The President is a guide for, and example to, all parents.

Duties and Responsibilities

The President leads the P&F by:

- Planning and chairing meetings in consultation with the Executive Committee Members
- Preparing meeting agendas in consultation with the Principal, and arranging for them to be added to the P&F section of the School’s website the week prior to meetings
- Provide a regular update on P&F activities for the School newsletter, including notification to the School community of the next meeting and calling for agenda items
- Ensuring meetings run according to the agenda and the Constitution
- Ensuring fair discussion - give all an opportunity to speak (and vote, if required)
- Ensuring activities of the P&F are sanctioned by the Principal
- Working with the Treasurer to ensure financial accountability

- Oversee the Members of the Executive Committee to ensure all responsibilities are working well and making sure the load is shared
- Ensuring decisions/actions from meetings are carried out
- Arrange for meeting minutes to be approved by the Principal and all meeting attendees, then uploaded to the P&F's area on the School website

- Check and approve all notes, letters, communication, etc. from the P&F to the school community and external groups, businesses, organisations, etc. (or delegate to another Executive Committee Member if necessary)
- Report relevant P&F correspondence at meetings (having regard for privacy issues)
- Encouraging parents to get involved
- Helping parents feel welcomed at the School

Some things to be aware of as President:

- Tune in to parents' comments
- Respond to parents' comments and questions
- Meet as many parents as possible – welcome them individually to meetings
- Manage attempts by individuals to dominate meetings
- Stop “personal issues” if these arise at meetings
- Avoid ambushes, particularly of the Principal

6.2 Vice President

Role

The main role of the Vice President is to assist the President in their duties and fulfil the role when the President is unavailable.

Duties and Responsibilities

The Vice President will support the President by:

- Chairing meetings in his/her absence
- Sharing duties and responsibilities as agreed: e.g. assisting with the activities of sub-committees, assisting the secretary or the treasurer in some of their tasks if required
- Obtain required reports from Executive Committee Members and any sub-committees and forward them to the President
- Confirm meeting attendance of the Executive Committee and other appropriate people (guest speakers, etc.)

- Check with the office for mail at least once a week (and respond where appropriate or forward to the President, appropriate Executive Committee member or Principal where necessary). This duty can be delegated to another Executive Committee Member if necessary
- Manage the contact list of the Executive Committee and sub-committee members
- Keep a record of all Ordinary Members who attend meetings, including their email addresses, to assist the distribution of draft meeting minutes by the President

6.3 Secretary

Role

The Secretary is very important to the efficient operation of any organisation. The Secretary needs enthusiasm, initiative and an ability to work with the President. The Secretary's main functions are:

- Maintaining effective records
- Ensuring meetings are effectively minuted

Duties and Responsibilities

- Take comprehensive notes at meetings, recording the outcome/s or action/s and main discussion point/s of each agenda item
- Write up the minutes and send them to the President within one week of meetings

6.4 Treasurer

Role

The Treasurer accounts for and reports on the finances of the P&F. The Treasurer needs to be a person of trust and responsibility.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Work with the Executive Committee to prepare an annual budget (finalised by the second meeting of the year), thereby planning for the P&F's financial future
- Must keep accurate financial records of all receipts and expenditure
- Must issue receipts for all money received
- Submit all accounts and money to the School's Bursar
- Present a monthly financial report – keep the P&F informed
- Arrange for the monthly Bank Statement and reconcile deposits and cheque books with the statements
- Prepare a financial report for the Annual General Meeting

6.5 Social & Pastoral Officer

The Social & Pastoral Officer is responsible for the co-ordination of social and pastoral activities which help form and promote the School community and assist those in need. In conjunction with others who from time to time might assist, some examples of what they might co-ordinate are:

- Refreshments at parent/teacher conferences, open days, working bees, orientation days etc.
- Regular “cuppa” and “chat” days for parents, either after the morning drop-off or before the afternoon pick-up

- Develop a fundraising action plan, timetabling events for the year
- Identify and suggest fundraising opportunities
- In conjunction with the Treasurer keep records relating to fundraising monies
- Provide updates to the P&F regarding fundraising activities at the General Meetings
- Liaise with the Principal to ensure that fundraising activities don’t clash with other events and activities run by the School
- Keep in touch with event organisers to see how they are progressing and if any support is required

6.7 Principal

The P&F can only work well if it has a positive relationship with the Principal. The Principal is the manager of the School. He/she is an ex-officio member of the P&F, so their connection with the P&F is strong.

This connection is even more important when we recognise that the School and the family are partners in the education of our children. Connections between families and School that promote student learning contribute to students’ success at School.

While the Principal has the final decision making role, parents expect that decisions will be based on good consultation. Decisions made by the P&F must have the support of the Principal, as he/she has ultimate responsibility for the School.

Activities of the P&F must, under the Constitution, be carried out as agents of the School, thereby needing the support of the Principal.

Key aspects of the relationship:

- Provides leadership, guidance and support
- Collaborative and cooperative approach
- Works with the President and Executive Committee (as well as all parents)
- Provides information to the community
- Accessible to parents
- Develops the School profile - enrolment trends, demographics, mission statement, priorities, facilities, resources, parish links

6.8 Parish Priest

In Parish Schools, the Parish Priest has overall responsibility under Canon Law for the whole parish community including the School. He is an ex-officio member of the P&F.

Where possible and practical, the P&F should support and encourage the involvement of the Parish Priest with the life of the children at School.

7. ASSISTING OFFICERS

7.1 Grants Applications Assisting Officer

The Grants Applications Assisting Officer should:

- Collaborate with the Executive Committee to identify and suggest grant application opportunities that can assist the School with projects and purchasing equipment
- Ensure grant applications are drafted and submitted on time with the approval of the P&F President and School Principal
- Provide regular updates to the P&F regarding grant application opportunities and grant submission progress

7.2 Gardens and Grounds Assisting Officer

The Gardens and Grounds Assisting Officer should:

- Collaborate with the Executive Committee to identify projects to improve School assets, gardens and facilities
- Co-ordinate relevant sub-committees to ensure identified projects are kept on track and completed
- Provide budgeted and actual expenditure of projects to be presented at P&F meetings

- c. Special General Meeting - these shall be called and held for a specific purpose

At this time, a call for agenda items will be made, with the agenda subsequently published on the P&F's section of the School's website not less than four (4) days prior to the meeting.
- b. The President or in his/her absence the Vice President or Secretary shall convene Special General Meetings of the P&F when:

8.4 Conduct of Meetings

Unless otherwise provided by this Constitution, at every Annual General Meeting, General Meeting and Special General Meeting:

- a. The President shall be Chairperson or in his/her absence the Vice President and in the absence of both, a Chairperson shall be elected by resolution of a majority of the Members present at the meeting, however, the Secretary (or in their absence, the person taking the minutes) should not chair the meeting, as taking the minutes is difficult enough
- b. The Chairperson shall conduct all meetings in accordance with agreed and accepted rules for the conduct of meetings (as per 13.2)
- c. Whenever a decision is to be made, it shall be decided by consensus, but should a deadlock (two or more opposing viewpoints) occur, a vote of all Members of the P&F present will be taken and a majority decision shall apply. However, the Principal has right of veto.

- d. Should a vote be required every member present shall be entitled to one vote. Where a vote is tied, the motion lapses so that the status quo is maintained, unless the Principal makes a decision one way or the other.
- e. Voting shall be by show of hands, unless a simple majority of Members present move that a secret ballot be conducted. The Chairperson shall appoint two Members to conduct the secret ballot in such manner as he/she shall determine. The result of the ballot as declared by the Chairperson shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the ballot was demanded.
- f. The Secretary shall take accurate minutes of all questions, matters, resolutions and other proceedings of the Annual General Meeting, all General Meetings and any Special General Meetings. In the absence of the Secretary, another Executive Committee Member shall take this responsibility (not the Chair of the meeting). The minutes will be published on the P&F's section of the School's website, and a permanent file of correspondence and documents will be maintained (on a folder set aside for the P&F on the School's Google Drive) by the Secretary as directed by the President.

8.5 Annual General Meeting (AGM)

The President or in his/her absence the Vice President or Secretary shall give twenty-one (21) days' notice of the AGM in the School Newsletter, and call for nominations for the Executive Committee. The AGM shall be open to all Ordinary Members and Friends of the School and to those guests invited by the Executive Committee.

Agenda of the AGM

The business to be transacted at every Annual General Meeting shall include:

- The reading of the minutes of the previous Annual General Meeting
- Business arising from the minutes of the previous AGM
- The receiving of the President's Report
- The receiving of the Principal's Report
- The receiving of the Treasurer's Report
- The receiving of the Fundraising Report
- Any other reports (as appropriate)
- The election of Members of the Executive Committee
- General business

All reports shall be in writing and submitted to the Secretary at least one (1) week prior to the AGM.

8.6 Election of the Executive Committee and Assisting Officers

At the AGM, after the annual reports are concluded, the Chairperson will hand control of the meeting to the Principal or the Principal's nominee.

The Principal will declare all Executive and non-Executive Committee positions vacant and call for nominations for the positions of:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Social & Pastoral Officer
- Fundraising Officer
- Grants Applications Assisting Officer
- Gardens and Grounds Assisting Officer

A nomination to any position must be seconded and accepted by the nominee. If there is one (1) nominee for the position, then the nominee will be duly appointed. For contested positions, an election will be held via secret ballot. The outcome of the election will be declared at the AGM.

8.7 General Meetings

The P&F shall meet at least eight (8) times a year, with at least two (2) meetings per term. The President shall chair all meetings. In the absence of the President, the Vice President or else any other Executive Committee (excluding the Secretary) or Ordinary Member shall chair the meeting.

Where the Chairperson or the Principal believes that the discussion on a topic is not leading to fruitful and/or informed decision making processes, the Chairperson in consultation with the Principal has the right to withdraw or defer the topic.

The business to be transacted at every General Meeting shall include (but is not limited to):

- Welcome
- Apologies
- Approve previous minutes
- Actions arising from previous meeting
- Reports:
 - i. Principal's Report
 - ii. Treasurer's Report
 - iii. Social and Pastoral Report
 - iv. Fundraising Report
 - v. Other Reports (as appropriate)
- General Business
- Date, time and venue of the next meeting

9. FRAMEWORK FOR DECISION MAKING

The following statements (found elsewhere in this Constitution) are to be taken into consideration when decisions are to be made by the P&F (usually at a General Meeting) with regards to how fundraising, social and pastoral activities are selected, and how funds raised are spent:

- a. To develop a community spirit - with a Catholic ethos
- b. To provide opportunities for parents to get to know each other and to be informed about the School
- c. Assist in the preparation of working bees and maintenance programs for the School
- d. To raise funds for the benefit of the School, at the direction of the Principal
- e. While the Principal has the final decision making role, parents expect that decisions will be based on good consultation. Decisions made by the P&F must have the support of the Principal, as he/she has ultimate responsibility for the School
- f. Parents and Friends' Associations are not for profit organisations. No member of the Association will receive a financial advantage from the Association. All monies that the Association raises are to be directed towards the objectives of the School community

Having regard for the preceding statements, the Fundraising Officer and Social and Pastoral Officer should be regularly looking to plan and refine the events and activities of the P&F throughout the year. In addition to putting forward suggested events and activities, they should collect and document ideas from parents. All ideas should be put forward for discussion at General Meetings, and, where appropriate, a vote taken to decide the events and activities for the following year, or even further into the future where longer lead times are required for planning purposes. As much as is possible, P&F events and activities should be decided upon before the end of the school year for the following year, and this will rely on the next year's school calendar of major events (such as camps, sacraments, etc.) being finalised. This will greatly assist the smooth running of events and activities, particularly in Term 1, especially if there are new Executive Committee members.

When consideration is being made as to how funds that the P&F has raised should be spent, the priority should be on items that will benefit all students over the longer term. While parents may have their own personal thoughts on how funds should be spent, the Principal will be in the best position to decide. Throughout the year, the Principal may put forward possible funding ideas for discussion, based on needs that the Principal has identified, or ideas that parents have submitted that have been vetted by the Principal.

10. LIMITATION OF SCOPE

The P&F does not exercise authority over the School's teaching staff, neither shall it be involved in any way with the control or management of the School. This P&F is primarily a consultative body with regards to the administration of the School.

11. ALTERATION OF CONSTITUTION

- a. This Constitution may be amended at a General Meeting or a Special General Meeting of the P&F called for that purpose.
- b. Notice of any proposed amendment shall be given in writing to the Secretary. The notice should be signed by ten (10) members (made up of Ordinary and Executive members) who support the proposal. If the Executive Committee thinks that the proposed amendment should be dealt with separate to the regular General Meetings, the Secretary shall notify (in the School newsletter) the terms thereof to all members of the P&F, with the date, time and place of the Special General Meeting called for that purpose. The meeting shall take place within one calendar month of the notice of the meeting called for that purpose. Otherwise, the proposed amendment shall be added to the agenda for the next General Meeting.

- d. Proper books and accounts shall be kept and maintained showing correctly the financial affairs of the P&F, and the particulars usually shown in books of like nature. Such books are to be open for inspection at all reasonable times by any member who applies to the Secretary for that inspection. The Treasurer should present an updated report to each General Meeting
- e. All moneys shall be submitted to the School Bursar as soon as practicable after receipt of them
- f. The P&F shall not borrow money
- g. The P&F shall, where possible, manage all funds in accordance with an annual budget
 - A minimum amount of $10,000 should be maintained in the P&F account at all times throughout the year
 - By the second meeting of the year, the P&F should be able to decide how much money it will have to fund activities/projects throughout the year, based on the current funds in the bank account, any unpaid committed expenditure, estimated fundraising income and expenditure and the requirement to maintain at least $10,000 in the account throughout the year
- h. As soon as practicable after the end of each Financial Year, the Treasurer shall cause to be prepared a statement of receipts and payments, income and expenditure, and a balance sheet for the financial year just ended. All such statements shall be examined by the School's auditor, who shall present his/her report to the Secretary prior to the holding of the next Annual General Meeting following the financial year in respect of which such audit was made
- i. If the Annual General Meeting is held prior to the end of the financial year a Financial Report will be presented to the meeting. The audited Financial Report shall be presented to the first General Meeting after the end of the financial year
- j. The Treasurer of the P&F or of a sub-committee will hand to the successor in office all records and accounts of the P&F or sub-committee, as soon as the successor has been appointed

- k. If a Treasurer of the P&F or of a sub-committee resigns during the term of office, the P&F should arrange for an audit of the records and accounts of the P&F or sub-committee to be carried out before handing these to the new Treasurer

13. NO AGENCY OF THE SCHOOL

- a. The P&F will not hold itself out as agent of the School and has no Authority to bind the School.

- b. In such event, the property and other assets of the P&F remaining after the payment of all expenses and other liabilities shall, as the majority of Members present at such General Meeting by resolution may decide, be handed over to the School

15. Parental Code of Conduct

This Parental Code of Conduct is intended to provide P&F Members with guidelines for the effective conduct of meetings and the development of positive relationships within the School community.

At the first General Meeting of the P&F each year, the Principal will bring the Parental Code of Conduct to the attention of those present, and outline its main points.

15.1 General Conduct

P&F Members agree to:

- a. Support the Principal and staff in the development of a Christ-centred learning community based upon the principles of Catholic doctrine
- b. Support the School's policies developed in consultation with all stakeholders. The Principal has the responsibility to implement these policies
- c. Accept responsibility for their child's/children's progress and work with the teaching staff to deal promptly with areas of concern
- d. Treat all P&F Members with respect and courtesy
- e. Acknowledge and affirm success in individual and School achievement

15.2 Conduct at Meetings

To ensure that meetings are carried out effectively, P&F Members agree to:

- a. Conduct activities in accordance with this Constitution
- b. Acknowledge that the education and well-being of all students is the primary focus for discussion and recommendations
